Since 1950, Farina & Sons, Inc. has earned a reputation for excellence in quality, integrity and service in residential construction throughout Central Florida. It is a reputation that Victor Farina takes great pride in – especially since he learned everything from his father, Mario. The Farina family is passionate about creating beautiful homes that maintain and elevate the neighborhoods where we live. Each custom home or renovation received Farina's trademark attention to detail and teamwork approach. Please visit our website for more information about the builder and to view our gallery of award winning projects at www.farinaandsons.com.
